noon by Mrs. E. D. Franklin at the home of Mrs. H. E. Runkle.

Mrs. Nora Bradley will be the hostess for the Thursday club tomorrow.

A beautiful affair of the week was the bridge party given Tuesday afternoon by Miss Florence Comfort complimentary to Miss Lillian Crawford. In the decoration of the home, orange and cream colored chrysanthemums were used, adorning chandeliers and tables and filling vases distributed about the apartments.

Miss Lillian Crawford, the honor guest, received a beautiful silver mesh bag from her friends, and was also the winner of the first prize, a dainty hand-embroidered apron. Two course refreshments followed the games and further accentuated the decorative scheme, the lemon ice being served from a scooped-out lemon, embedded in the petals of an orange-colored chrysanthemum. Those enjoying the hospitality of the occasion were Misses Lillian Crawford, Allen Hargis, Jody Hargis, Clover Shackelford, Rena Caldwell, Susie Lattner, Jennie Anderson, Lucille Danner, Mabel Mentzer, Hattie Mae Lorets, Milda Connolly, Corliss Hooper, Karma

The Bazaar
OUTFITTERS FOR MEN AND BOYS

Women's Organizations

The art department of the Woman's club held the initial meeting of the season this afternoon in the club rooms on Boulevard. Mrs. Alice P. Thompson presided, and the program was interesting and instructive.

The Parent-Teachers' association of the Sunset school will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the school building.

The Pythian Sisters held their monthly social meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Scotten, when the twenty-third anniversary of the order was celebrated.

The time was spent in high five and heart games. In the high five games Samuel Cross received the prize for the top score, a china cup and saucer, and the consolation went to Mrs. Samuel Cross. In the heart game, Miss Ella McDonald secured the first prize and Frank Scotten received the consolation prize.

Refreshments followed the games and were hallowed in character, consisting of pumpkin pie, coffee, apples and confections.

Miss Sue Lattner was the hostess this afternoon for the Beta Beta club.

The Beta Beta club will meet at the residence of Miss Sue Lattner, 1114 North Campbell, Thursday afternoon.

We have recently received a big shipment of high grade human hair goods. Switches, especially, we offer in all shades and qualities. Elite Parlors, 214 Texas Street.
